

ACCESS

FREE WORKSHOP

Sign up for Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

Wednesday, October 21, 5 PM - 8 PM
ACCESS - 2651 Saulino Court, Dearborn, 48210

There is a new immigration program for certain Yemenis called Temporary Protected Status (TPS). TPS may allow certain Yemeni noncitizens who do not have current immigration paperwork to apply for protection from deportation and a work permit.

Free legal advice and application assistance will be provided at this workshop by licensed attorneys and BIA-accredited representatives

Please bring your legal documents to the workshop, including:

- Any official document with your name dated BEFORE September 3, 2015, such as a utility bill or government notice.
- Proof of your identity, such as a drivers license or passport
- Proof that you are from Yemen, such as a passport or birth certificate

Our legal help is free, but the Department of Homeland Security charges an application fee. RSVP strong

RSVP strongly encouraged. Please call (313) 466-4170 to RSVP and for questions about the fee and fee waiver. For all other questions, please call (313) 945-8167 or (313) 842-7010

Sponsored by:

ACCESS, Michigan United, International Institute, and the Michigan Immigrant Rights Center

